

we use this service as a lifeline and information service to help in the decision making ability of driving over the road. it gives us advance notice of road weather and possible dangers letting us to be able to divert our route or stop if the need is justified, this should be considered a service that would be offered and supported by our government as a public and safety issue not to be interfered with for the purpose of profit by companies or politicians